Editorial

I hope you all had a pleasant Easter break.

The Annual General Meeting of NCWT will be held on Wednesday 18th May at 2 pm in the Town Hall Conference Room

The Hobart City Council requires all visitors to be vaccinated.

Guest Speaker will be Jo Flanagan, CEO of Women's Health Tasmania. Jo will speak on a new Bystander Intervention program that WHT is running. Several members have attended this program and are impressed with its content. Jo will also give general information on Women's Health Tasmania.

We look forward to your attendance.

This is a sad time for NCWT with the passing of Linley Grant OAM. Please see further information in this newsletter.

Annual subscriptions are now due and payable by the 31st July 2022. Payment can be made at the AGM by cash or cheque only.

VALE LINLEY MAIBEL GRANT OAM

The recent passing of Linley Grant OAM has saddened members of National Council of Women of Tasmania.

Linley was a force to be reckoned with as a member of NCWT. Linley was very passionate regarding women's issues but also in particular, habitat and the environment.

Linley joined NCWT representing Guides Tasmania and remained to have several terms as President, Secretary and Advisor since the 1990s.

Health issues did not stop her participating in person until last year.

Linley had a very full life with travel and numerous activities and membership of a number of organizations, the major one being Guides Tasmania which she was involved with in one-way or another since childhood.

Linley also excelled in her employment being a sister in the RHH Burns unit for many years.

After having a family Linley returned to study and attended the University of Tasmania as a mature age student to obtain a degree.

The organization of the centenary of NCWT in 1999 was largely due to Linley's enthusiasm, participation and organization. The National Conference of NCWA was held in Hobart also at the same time.

Linley leaves a legacy of devotion to her family, her many organizations and her wish to make a better world for all. She also aspired for a world in peaceful cohabitation without wars.

We are all blessed to have known her.
